

RMRR Code of Conduct

As a member of Rocky Mountain Rugby Referees, I affirm that I will:

1. Act as a role model, promote the positive aspects of rugby, and enhance the reputation of the referee community both on and off the field
2. Treat all players, coaches, officials, administrators, and spectators equally and respectfully
3. Ensure that safety is paramount in all matches
4. Officiate all matches in a fair and impartial manner
5. Avoid anything that may lead to a conflict of interest including gifts, favors, wagers, privileges, association, and employment
6. Avoid being alone with minors and report any abusive behavior towards minors to appropriate authorities
7. Avoid dealing with injuries unless qualified to do so
8. Display and promote high standards through language, manner, preparation, punctuality and presentation
9. Seek continual improvement through self study, educational events, informal feedback, and formal appraisals
10. Complete match reports, performance/coaching reports, availability and registration in a timely and accurate manner
